Members of the local lodge of Elks are preparing to attend the grand lodge of Elks which meets at Salt Lake City in August. A large delegation will go from this state.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Victor Lindback, of this city and Miss Erickson of Portland, which event will take place in Portland April 2.

Walter P. Bagley, the young man who was taken with smallpox in this city yesterday, was promptly taken in charge by the health authorities and has been isolated so that there is hope that no other cases will develop from his case.

The Methodist ladies will hold an Easter sale in the Flavel building, opposite the Bee Hive on Commercial street. The sale will open Saturday at noon, and continue during the afternoon and evening. Home-made candies and Easter novelties, ice-cream, pies, cakes, bread, colored eggs, aprons, etc., will be for sale.

It is stated that there will be no further surveying done at the Columbia river bar, as the pilots have informed the government authorities that there is more than 20 feet of water on the bar at low tide. This will allow further alarm to those who have been informed that the bar is about to develop into a sand island.

A Greek fisherman was arrested yesterday by Bailiff Sinnott for illegal fishing. Another, whom it was claimed was violating the law, made his escape, although his net was seized. The deputy warden intends putting on a patrol boat at an early day to apprehend violators of the law.

The steamship Oceano dragged her anchor yesterday morning and swung around across the bow of the German ship Barmbek, and both ships being heavily loaded they came together and the Barmbek lost nearly all of her head rigging. While the bulk of the ships were not damaged, yet they will be delayed several days for repairs to the damages received.

The Push Club has a committee appointed for the purpose of advertising the resources of this section before the Wisconsin lumber excursionists who will visit the coast in June of this year. An invitation will be extended them to visit Astoria. As this is the greatest lumbering district in the Northwest the excursionists should not return home without seeing it.

The Court of England, during the reign of the "Merry Monarch," (as Charles II. was called) was presented by the Shirley Company at Fishers' last evening, to a large audience, and the quaint manners of that period were shown in a manner which was most pleasing. The support was excellent throughout and the costumes were absolutely correct in every detail. Tonight "Carmille" will be the bill.

The funeral of the late John M. Young will take place today from Grace church at 1 p. m., Rev. W. S. Short officiating. Anyone wishing to see the remains can do so at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Young between the hours of 10:30 and 12 a. m. The interment will take place at Greenwood cemetery, under the auspices of the Elks, where the services will be private.

Following officers were elected for the ensuing term by the local lodge of Elks at their meeting Tuesday evening: J. E. Gratke, exalted ruler; A. M. Smith, leading knight; Chester Fox, loyal knight; Frank M. Gordon, lecturing knight; F. J. Carney, secretary; J. C. Clinton, treasurer; J. V. Burns, tyler; Malcolm Barger, trustee. The new officers will be installed on next Tuesday evening.

The funeral of Arthur Ward, the lad who recently died in the mountains near Tillamook, was held yesterday from Pohl's undertaking parlors. Rev. W. S. Short conducted the services which were very impressive. Besides the parents of the deceased and his two brothers, who had reached the city in time for the funeral, many friends were present. The interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

There are a few individuals about this town who were cut out for real loafers, and whoever cut them out understood his job.

Speaking of the allusion in a local paper to his candidacy for the office of county judge, Judge Gray said: "I did not intend becoming a candidate for re-election to the office for another term and so announced the fact to my friends several weeks ago, but since that time I have been petitioned by many signers to become a candidate again on the ground that I am familiar with road-building and the other affairs of the county, which it requires time to get in touch with, and on account of these petitioners and many personal requests from people who feared that their special interest—roads—might be neglected, I consented to permit my name to go before the convention. I do not expect to be a party to 'blood spilling,' have never failed to support the ticket, and will not fall this time."

One of the county officials requests that we repeat the statement recently made in these columns that there is no state law providing for action of county and state officials in cases of contagious diseases. The county officials are constantly besieged by persons living out of the corporate towns of the county for protection, and for advice as to the means to pursue to prevent the spread of smallpox which is now threatening many communities. It is one of those cases in which the people will have to protect themselves. They will have to simply organize and use such means as is necessary to isolate and tend them during sickness, and make out the bet they can. In the meantime it is every one's duty to use discretion in the matter, to get vaccinated, to get others to get vaccinated, and to isolate themselves and have others do the same in case they are taken with the disease. The cities have laws for the protection of the citizens but the state has not.

WEST SIDE NOTES

P. F. Halferty will start up the clam cannery on the first of the month. This has become quite an industry, employing a large number of people in digging clams.

A brother of P. F. Halferty, and family, arrived from Iowa last week. They will locate at Warrenton. Eleven young men accompanied them, who will also make Oregon their home.

Mrs. Alfred Dawson has returned from a brief visit with relatives in Skamokawa.

Frank Sweeney has just returned from Nehalem with a band of cattle that he has placed on the S. D. Adair place.

D. M. Stuart has been busy on the West Side this week. On Monday he will sell at auction the cattle of S. D. Adair.

Miss Verbera Coffman was a guest of Miss Alice Sweeney last week.

Mrs. Ida Powers is improving very rapidly. She is able to get out of doors and is now visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Hill.

Mrs. Stella Hill and Mrs. Lloyd Loomis and families have moved to Quincy, where their husbands are engaged in the wood business.

La grippe and severe colds have been very prevalent of late. One case of smallpox was reported at Warrenton, but without foundation, and another at Fort Stevens, equally false, but resulted in the issuing of an order for all to be vaccinated.

PROPOSALS WANTED.

Custom House.—Sealed proposals will be received at this building until 2 o'clock p. m., Friday, April 4, 1902, for furnishing fuel, lights, water, miscellaneous supplies, washing towels, hauling ashes, and sprinkling streets for the building during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, or such portion of the year as may be deemed advisable. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved by the Treasury Department. JOHN FOX, Custodian. Astoria, Ore., March 22, 1902.

PROTECTION FOR PUBLIC MEN.

An Austrian inventor has perfected a garment which, it is claimed, will resist a knife thrust or a bullet from an assassin's pistol. Its adoption will furnish wonderful protection to rulers and public men, and while it is necessary to protect their bodies from harm on the outside, it is infinitely more important to protect them from serious danger on the inside, such as may arise from a disordered stomach, weak kidneys or impure blood. The best health maker and protector known to science is the old reliable Host-Ritter's Stomach Bitters. For 50 years it has been making sickly people well by curing all such ailments as sick headache, indigestion, dyspepsia, flatulency and insomnia. It is also a splendid spring tonic and blood purifier, and should be in every household.

LARGE CROWDS

Owen's glass blowers opened yesterday afternoon, in the Kinney building on Commercial street to a large and well pleased audience. Words of admiration on all sides were expressed for this wonderful exhibition which must be seen to be appreciated.

Many beautiful ornaments were made and given away. Open every afternoon from 2 to 5, and 7 to 10 in the evening. Admission only 15 cents and every visitor receives a glass present.

Perhaps the reason why it is so easy for some women to tell falsehoods is because the naked truth shocks them.

Poor old mother Eve was to be pitied because there was no other woman whose clothes she could criticize.

REGETTA OR NO REGETTA.

Is Up to the People Said the Push Club at Its Meeting Last Night.

At the meeting of the Push Club last evening there were several matters of importance discussed, the most important of which was the coming regatta at Astoria. The discussion developed the fact that there were some of Astoria's prominent citizens who are possibly against the continuation of the annual regatta, and that in case the regatta is held this year that there are other organizations in the city whose members have more time to conduct the work necessary to make a successful regatta than the members of the Push Club. A motion was finally made and carried to the effect that the regatta question be made a special order of business for the third meeting from last evening which will be held April 16, at which time all of the members of the club are requested to be present in order to have a full expression on the subject. It was requested that the local newspapers call the attention of the public to the matter that he people generally may express themselves on the question of regatta or no regatta. It is up to the citizens of Astoria.

The discussion of a public pavilion was also engaged in and a special committee appointed to investigate the matter, find location, ascertain the cost of construction, etc. The idea is to build a pavilion at least a hundred feet square and that it is to be free on all public occasions for meetings of all kinds, except that during the regattas, street fairs, and like occasions space might be rented to exhibitors, in this way raising funds for taxes and repairs, and at the same time giving all citizens an equal show for space in the building.

A communication was received from the board of pilots requesting the body to petition the congressmen and senators of Oregon and Washington to try to get a special act through congress at the present session making provision for the construction of an ocean dredger at the Columbia bar, stating that the government in its various departments needs a harbor of refuge and that with the aid of such a dredger one can be maintained such as the one at New York and at the Mersey, near Liverpool.

Inquiries were received from Eastern persons in reference to agricultural lands. Mr. Gaston, of the agricultural committee, reported that he had received two large sacks of seeds from the government and was making free distribution of them.

Herman Wise was elected a member of the club.

Mr. Gratke, of the publishing committee, reported progress in the work which is being gotten up to advertise Astoria and Clatsop county.

COMMERCIALS WON THREE.

Cinched Their Lead in the Bowling Contest Last Night.

The Commercial bowlers last night took three out of four games at their own alleys and defeated the Irvings by 57 pins. All things considered, the scoring was very fair, both teams being without some of their regular tournament men. Taylor suffers with a lame hand and did not wish to bowl last night, but it was necessary that he should do so. Woodfield was substituted for Goodell, who was unavoidably absent, and acquitted himself with credit. Parker, Barker, Tuttle, Mansell and McCue were new men on the Irving team last night and showed up in good form. McCue was particularly aggressive in the second game, when, following Captain Astbury's fine example, he piled up 59. Astbury scored 65, amid much enthusiasm. Two centers prevented the establishment of a new record.

The victory of the Commercial last night gives them a cinch on first place. The Irvings have made an excellent showing, and the tournament, which closes next Wednesday night at the Irving Club alleys, has been a decided success. The Irvings have fared much better since G. Clyde Fulton has been bowling with them. Fulton is certainly an expert at the game and his presence on a team is always an inducement to the other players. He distinguished himself last night by securing the high total for the Irvings, and also by making 'em connect for 60. His after-dinner remarks at a popular resort, whether the bowlers repaired, were much appreciated.

Last night's scores follow:
